

ALTA[®]

NAPA VALLEY

REVIVAL
CABERNET SAUVIGNON

2015

Alta means "height" in Spanish and perfectly describes the mountainside site of the Alta home vineyard in the Atlas Peak district of the Napa Valley, as well as owners' Fred and Nina Oliai's aspirations to craft only the best possible, limited release wines from the region.

The 2015 Revival reflects our vision of a Bordeaux style Cabernet Sauvignon. This graceful wine opens with subtle notes of blackcurrant, black cherries, and ripe raspberries. The richness of the wine cloaks the tannin in a way that will permit early consumption. Tasting from barrel, Galloni noted that it is "bold, forward and juicy, all qualities readers will be able to enjoy upon release ... mid-weight Cabernet Sauvignon that delivers the goods. There is plenty to like."

Parker found "Full bodied, concentrated and structured with a solid frame of chewy tannins, it gives a generous amount of black cherry and savory flavors, finishing with an herbal lift." Drink now through 2025.
